TABLE OF CONTENTS

Introduction I

Preface V

About Intellectual Property in Israel 1

From Tangible to Non-Tangible Assets 1

Intellectual Property Right's Birth is in Legislation 2

Opposing Interests 4

The Intellectual Property "Tree" 5

The Purpose of Intellectual Property Law in Israel 6

The legislation history of Intellectual Property in Israel 7

About this book 10

Chapter 1: Patents 13

1. Introduction 19
2. Purpose of Protection 21
3. Subject Matter 22
4. Protected Rights 23
5. Prerequisites for Protection 25

5.1 Field of technology 25

5.1.1 Applicability to software patents [Field of technology] 27

5.1.2 Applicability to business methods [Field of technology] 29

5.2 Industrial Applicability 32

5.3 Novelty 32

5.3.1 Novelty Rule – Entire Invention 34

5.3.2 Novelty Rule –Entire Invention – Incorporation by Reference 35

5.3.3 Novelty rule –Specific Instructions 36

5.3.4 Novelty Rule – Substance vs. Form and Wording 37

5.3.5 Novelty Rule – Applying General Technical Knowledge 38

5.3.6 Novelty Rule– Novelty and Infringement 39

5.4 Usefulness 41

5.5 Inventive step 43

5.5.1 Inventive step – Examination Rules 44

5.5.2 Inventive Step – First rule – Adding Previous Publications 44

5.5.3 Inventive Step – Second Rule – "The Average Man of the Art" 45

5.5.4 Inventive step – Third Rule – A modest and small Inventive step 46

5.5.5 Inventive Step – Fourth Rule – Hindsight 47

5.5.6 Inventive Step – Secondary Tests for Examination 47

5.5.7 Inventive step – First Secondary test – Long Felt Need in the Field of the Invention 49

5.5.8 Inventive step – Second Secondary Test – Commercial Success 50

5.5.9 Inventive step – Third Secondary Test –Professionals' Reaction 52

5.5.10 Inventive step – Fourth Secondary Test – Imitation by Competitors 52

5.5.11 Inventive Step – Additional Secondary Test – Obvious to try 53

5.5.12 Inventive step – Combination Claims 55

5.5.13 Inventive Step – Indications of a Lack of Inventive Step 57

5.6 The Process 58

5.6.1 File an application 58

5.6.2 Examination and Expedited Examination 58

5.6.3 Examination and Office Objections 58

5.6.4 Acceptance and Publication 59

5.6.5 The opposition period 59

5.7 Opposition 60

6. Term of Protection 61

6.1 Term of protection – Application Date 61

6.2 Term of protection – Fee Payment as a Prerequisite for Protection 63

6.3 Term of Protection – Term of an Addition Patent 65

6.4 Term of Protection – Extension Term of Medical Related Patents 67

6.4.1 Conditions for the Granting of an Extension Order 69

6.4.2 Term of Effect of an Extension Order 71

6.4.3 Term Limitations 72

7. Infringements 73

7.1 Infringing Acts – Unauthorized Use 75

7.2 Infringing Acts – The Claims 76

7.3 Infringing Acts – The Claims – Interpretation 77

7.4 Infringing Acts – Literal Infringement 81

7.5 Infringing Acts – Substance of the Invention 81

7.5.1 Substance of the Invention – The Variations Doctrine 82

7.5.2 Substance of the Invention – The Equivalency Doctrine 84

8. Permitted Uses and Defenses 86

8.1 Permitted Uses 87

8.1.1 Permitted Uses – Compulsory License 87

8.1.2 Permitted Uses – Experimental Use 91

8.1.3 Permitted Uses – Prior Use 91

8.1.4 Permitted Uses – Usage for Obtaining License 92

8.2 Defenses 93

8.2.1 The Indirect Attack on the Patent's Validity 94

8.2.2 Cancellation of a Registered Patent 94

9. Remedies 95

9.1 Injunction 96

9.1.1 The purpose of the injunctive relief 96

9.1.2 Types of injunctive reliefs 97

9.1.3 Permanent Injunctive Relief 97

9.1.4 Temporary Injunctive Relief 98

9.1.5 Pre-registration injunction 100

9.2 Monetary Remedies 102

9.2.1 The Normative Basis for Compensation Due to Patent Infringement 102

9.2.2 Compensation for Damage Resulted from Patent Infringement 106

9.2.3 Statutory Damages for evaluation of compensation by way of estimation 110

9.2.4 Enrichment Restitution Created For the Violator As A Result Of Patent Infringement 115

9.2.5 License Analogy used due to Patent Infringement 116

9.2.6 Punitive Damages for Patent Infringement 117

9.3 Destruction of Goods 118

9.4 Counterfeiting Merchandise Detained in Customs 119

10. Criminal Offenses 119

Chapter 2: Trademarsks 121

1. Introduction 127

2. Purpose of Protection 128

3. Subject Matter 130

3.1 Well-Known Trade Mark 131

3.2 Service Mark 133

3.3 Certification Mark 133

3.4 Collective Mark 136

3.5 Appellations of Origin – Geographical indications 137

4. Protected Rights 139

4.1 Protection of Registered Trademark 139

4.2 Protection of "Well Known" Trademark 141

4.2.1 Protection of unregistered "Well Known" Trademark 141

4.2.2 Protection of registered "Well Known" Trademark 141

5. Prerequisites for Protection 142

5.1 Distinctive Character 144

5.1.1 Distinctive Character – Definition 146

5.1.2 Levels of Distinctiveness 146

5.1.2.1 Generic Marks 147

5.1.2.2 Descriptive Marks 147

5.1.2.3 Suggestive Marks 148

5.1.2.4 Arbitrary or Fanciful Marks 148

5.1.3 The Inherent Distinctiveness 149

5.1.4 The Acquired Distinctiveness ("Secondary meaning") 149

5.2 Trademarks Ineligible for Registration 150

5.2.1 Article 11(1) – marks that contain reference to the President of Israel 150

5.2.2 Article 11(2) – marks that contain flags or emblems of state institutions 151

5.2.3 Article 11(3) – marks that contain public armorial bearings, official signs or seals 152

5.2.4 Article 11(4) – marks that contain words such as "Patent", "Registered Design" or "Copyright" 152

5.2.5 Article 11(5) – marks which are injurious to public policy 153

5.2.6 Article 11(6) – marks which may likely desceive the public or cause unfair competition 154

5.2.6ab Articles 11(6a) and 11(6b) – marks that contain false geographical indications 155

5.2.7 Articles 11(7) – marks which contain religious emblems 157

5.2.8 Articles 11(8) – marks which contain representation of a person without their consent 157

5.2.9 Articles 11(9) – marks identical or similar to the extent of deception to other trademarks 158

5.2.10 Articles 11(10) – marks consisting of numerals, letters or words which are in common use in trade 159

5.2.11 Articles 11(11) – marks with geographical significance or surnames 160

5.2.12 Articles 11(12) – marks identifying wines or spirits that contain false geographical indications 161

5.2.13 Articles 11(13) – marks identical or misleadingly similar to well-known unregistered marks 161

5.2.14 Articles 11(14) – marks identical or misleadingly similar to well-known registered marks 162

5.3 Eligibility Rules of Unique Trademarks 162

5.3.1 Three-dimensional marks 163

5.3.2 Slogans 165

5.3.3 Sound marks 169

5.3.4 Prerequisites for "Well Known" Trademark 169

5.4 The Process 172

5.4.1 File an application 172

5.4.2 Examination and Expedited Examination 172

5.4.3 Examination and Office Objections 173

5.4.4 Acceptance and Publication 174

5.4.5 The opposition period 174

5.5 Opposition 175

5.6 Interferences 178

5.7 Concurrent use 180

5.8 International Registration – The Madrid Protocol 182

5.8.1 The process 183

5.8.2 Madrid Protocol – Dependency 183

6. Term of Protection 184

7. Infringements 185

7.1 Infringing Acts 185

7.1.1 Part one of the triple test –Sight and sound 187

7.1.2 Part two of the triple test – The type of goods and customer base 188

7.1.3 Part three of the triple test – Totality of the circumstances 189

7.1.4 The Common sense test 190

7.1.5 Mental State is Irrelevant to the Infringement Question 190

7.2 Dilution 192

7.2.1 Examination of Dilution 196

8. Permitted Uses and Defenses 197

8.1 Permitted Uses 197

8.1.1 Permitted Acts: Genuine Use 197

8.1.2 Third Party Licenses 199

8.2 Defenses 201

8.2.1 The Indirect Attack on the Trademark's Validity 201

8.2.2 Cancellation of a Registered Trademark 202

8.2.2.1 Cancellation due to non-use 202

9. Remedies 203

9.1 Injunction 204

9.1.1 The purpose of the injunctive relief 205

9.1.2 Types of injunctive reliefs 205

9.1.2.1 Permanent Injunctive Relief 206

9.1.2.2 Temporary Injunctive Relief 206

9.2 Monetary Remedies 208

9.2.1 Compensation for actual damages 209

9.2.1.1 Heads of Loss 211

9.2.1.2 Damage Estimation 212

9.2.2 Restitution 215

9.3 Destruction of Goods or Transfer of Ownership 219

9.4 Counterfeiting Merchandise Detained in Customs 220

10. Criminal Offenses 224

10.1 Prosecution of Criminal Offences 226

10.2 Private Criminal Complaint 227

Chapter 3: Designs 229

1. Introduction 235

2. Purpose of Protection 236

3. Subject Matter 238

3.1 The object carrying the design 239

3.2 Different Types of Designs 240

3.2.1 The Two-Dimensional Design 240

3.2.2 The exception to the rule – Typefaces 241

3.2.3 The Three-Dimensional Design 242

3.2.3.1 The various states of a three-dimensional product 242

3.2.4 The Combination Design of Several Known Elements 243

3.2.5 Sets of Articles 244

3.3 Unregistered Designs 246

3.4 The Moral Right in a Design 247

4. Protected Rights 248

4.1 Designs registered under the Design Ordinance 248

4.2 Designs registered under the new Design Law 250

4.3 Unregistered designs 252

4.3.1 Marking Unregistered Designs 254

5. Prerequisites for Protection 255

5.1 Substantial conditions for Protection 255

5.1.1 New or Original vs. Novel and Having a distinctive character 255

5.1.2 No prior art 257

5.1.3 Aesthetic value 259

5.1.4 Number of units 259

5.2 Formal Conditions for Protection – Key Points in the Israeli Design Registration Process 261

5.2.1 Israeli address 261

5.2.2 Classification of Goods 261

5.2.2.1 Multiple Classifications – Application 262

5.2.2.2 Detailed Information for the accurate classification 263

5.2.2.3 Registering a Design under New Classes 263

5.2.3 Registering a Design as a Variant 264

5.2.4 The Novelty Statement 265

5.2.5 Pictures or Drawings 267

5.2.5.1 Dotted lines in a drawing 270

5.2.6 Ownership 271

5.3 Unregistered Designs 271

5.4 Non-registrable or Limit protection for Designs 274

5.4.1 The Design's Functionality 274

5.4.2 The Design of a Hidden, Unseen Component 277

5.4.3 Refusal of registration – Contrary to any law, public policy, or morality 278

5.4.4 Non-Completion of an Application 279

5.5 The Process 281

5.5.1 File an application 281

5.5.2 Examination and Expedited Examination 281

5.5.3 Examination and Office Objections 281

5.5.4 Acceptance and Publication 282

6. Term of Protection 282

6.1 Registered designs under the Ordinance (the Old act) 282

6.1.1 Design registration under the old Ordinance shall not be published during the first two years 283

6.1.2 Extensions periods to 15 years 283

6.1.3 Extending the term of protection to 18 years 285

6.2 Registered designs under the new Designs Law (the New act) 285

6.3 Unregistered designs 286

7. Infringements 286

7.1 Prohibited Acts 286

7.2 Awareness of the existence of a Registered Design 288

7.3 The Visual Test 289

8. Permitted Uses and Defenses 292

8.1 The Indirect Attack on the Design's Validity 292

8.2 Cancellation of a Registered Design 296

8.3 Innocent infringer 298

9. Remedies 299

9.1 Injunctions 300

9.1.1 Temporary Injunction 301

9.1.2 Permanent Injunction 302

9.1.3 Ex-Parte Injunction 303

9.2 Monetary Remedies 303

9.2.1 The normative basis for compensation for design Infringement 303

9.2.2 The principles for calculating compensation for damages caused to the design owner 305

9.2.3 Damages without proof of damage for design infringement 308

9.2.3.1 Statutory compensation under the Ordinance 308

9.2.3.2 Statutory compensation under the new Design Law 311

9.2.4 Accounting 312

9.3 Destruction of Goods 313

9.4 Counterfeiting Merchandise Detained in Customs 315

10. Criminal Offenses 320

Chapter 4: Copyrights 323

1. Introduction 327

2. Purpose of Protection 329

3. Subject Matter 331

3.1 Literary works 332

3.1.1 Computer programs 333

3.1.2 Compilations 336

3.2 Artistic works 337

3.2.1 Architectural work 338

3.2.2 Fonts 339

3.3 Dramatic works 339

3.3.1 Plays, Musicals and Operas 339

3.3.2 Cinematographic work 339

3.3.3 Choreography 340

3.4 Musical works 340

3.5 Sound recordings 341

3.6 Exceptions for Copyright protection 342

3.6.1 Non-protectable subject matter 342

3.6.2 Designs 342

3.6.3 No Copyright in Functional Objects 344

4. Protected Rights 346
4.1 Commercial rights 346
4.2 Moral Rights 348
5. Prerequisites for Protection 348
5.1 Originality 350
5.1.1 The Investment Test 352
5.1.2 The Creativity Test 353
5.1.3 The Origin test 357
5.2 Fixation 358
5.3 Connection to Israel 359
6. Term of Protection 361
7. Infringements 362
7.1 Direct Infringement of Copyright 362
7.2 Indirect Infringement of Copyright 364
7.3 Public Performance in a Place of Public Entertainment 365
7.4 Infringement of Moral Right 365
7.5 Indirect Infringement of Moral Right 367
8. Permitted Uses and Defenses 367
8.1 Fair Use 368
8.2 Innocent Infringer 369

8.3 Use of works in juridical or administrative procedures 370

8.4 Reproduction of a work deposited for public inspection 370

8.5 Incidental Use of a Work 371

8.6 Broadcast or copying of work in public place 371

8.7 Uses of an authorized copy of a Computer Programs 371

8.8 Recording for Purposes of Broadcast 372

8.9 Temporary Copies 373

8.10 Additional artistic work made by the author 373

8.11 Renovation and Reconstruction of Buildings 373

8.12 Public Performance in an Educational Institution 374

8.13 Permitted Uses in Libraries and Archives 374

8.14 Regulations regarding Educational Institutions, Libraries and Archives 375

8.15 Manufacture of sound recordings as against royalty payment 375

9. Remedies 376

9.1 Injunction 377

9.2 Monetary remedies 377

9.2.1 Determining the compensation for the actual loss or profit of the infringer 379

9.2.1.1 Calculation for determining compensation according to the actual damage caused – estimation or calculation for actual compensation of copyright infringement 381

9.2.2 Compensation for License analogy 383

9.2.3 Punitive damages 384

9.2.4 Compensation without proof of damage 385

9.2.5 The differences between compensation by way of estimation and statutory compensation 390

9.3 Destruction of Goods 393

9.4 Counterfeiting Merchandise Detained in Customs 395

10. Criminal Offenses 398

Chapter 5: Passing off 401

1. Introduction 403

2. Purpose of Protection 405

3. Subject Matter 405

4. Protected Rights 407

5. Prerequisites for Protection 408

6. Term of Protection 408

7. Infringements 409

7.1 Reputation 409

7.2 Deception – The triple test 411

7.2.1 Part one of the triple test –Sight and sound 413

7.2.2 Part two of the triple test – The type of goods and customer base 414

7.2.3 Part three of the triple test – Totality of the circumstances 414

7.2.4 The Common sense test 415

7.3 The relation between the defendant's acts and the tort 416

8. Permitted Uses and Defenses 416

8.1 General defenses for passing-off 416

8.2 The use of an own name 417

9. Remedies 417

9.1 Injunction 417

9.2 Monetary remedies 418

9.3 Destruction of Goods 419

9.4 Counterfeiting Merchandise Detained in Customs 419

10. Criminal Offenses 419

Chapter 6: Trade secrets 421

1. Introduction 423
2. Purpose of Protection 424
3. Subject Matter 425
4. Protected Rights 426
5. Prerequisites for Protection 426
   - 5.1 Business Information 426
   - 5.2 Exclusive and not easily detectable information 427
   - 5.3 Business advantage 429
   - 5.4 Taking reasonable measures to protect the secret 430
6. Term of Protection 430
7. Infringements 431
   - 7.1 Misappropriation of a trade secret 431
   - 7.2 Essential similarity 432
   - 7.3 Presumption of use 432
8. Permitted Uses and Defenses 433
   - 8.1 Exceptions to liability 433
   - 8.2 Bona fide purchase for value 434

9. Remedies 434
9.1 Injunction 435
9.2 Monetary remedies 435
9.3 Destruction of Goods 436
9.4 Counterfeiting Merchandise Detained in Customs 437
10. Criminal Offenses 437

Chapter 7: Plant breeders' rights 439
1. Introduction 441
2. Purpose of Protection 442
3. Subject Matter 442
4. Protected Rights 444
5. Prerequisites for Protection 447
5.1 Novelty and Distinctness 448
5.2 Uniformity 449
5.3 Stability 450
5.4 Morphology v. DNA in examination stage 451
6. Term of Protection 452
7. Infringements 453
7.1 Actions for Infringement 454
7.2 Types of infringement – Direct and EDV 454

7.3 Proof of infringement – Morphological and Genetic comparisons 456

8. Permitted Uses and Defenses 459

9. Remedies 460

9.1 Injunction 461

9.2 Monetary remedies 462

9.2.1 Punitive Damages 463

9.2.2 Accounting 464

9.3 Destruction of Goods 464

9.4 Counterfeiting Merchandise Detained in Customs 464

10. Criminal Offenses 465

Chapter 8: Integrated circuits 469

1. Introduction 471

2. Purpose of Protection 472

3. Subject Matter 473

4. Protected Rights 473

4.1 Ownership 474

4.2 Transfer and License 474

5. Prerequisites for Protection 475

5.1 Affinity to Israel 475

5.2 Originality 476

5.3 Set In Writing or Tangible Form 476

5.4 Date of Creation 477

6. Term of Protection 477

7. Infringements 477

8. Permitted Uses and Defenses 478

8.1 Exceptions to liability 478

8.2 Exhaustion of Rights 479

8.3 Unknowing Infringement 480

8.4 Compulsory License 480

9. Remedies 481

9.1 Injunction 482

9.2 Monetary Remedies 482

9.3 Destruction of Goods and Instructions 483

9.4 Counterfeiting Merchandise Detained in Customs 483

10. Criminal Offenses 484

INDEXES

Legislation 487

Foreign Legislation 511

International Treaties and Agreements 511

Court Decisions 514
Israel Supreme Court Decisions 514
Israel District Court Decisions 529
Israel Magistrate Court Decisions 536
Israel Registrar decisions 537
US Court Decisions 542
UK Court Decisions 544
EU Court Decisions 544
Articles 545